From the front door to the fairways, the driveway to the driving range, Laytonsville Golf Course in Gaithersburg Maryland is one of the most fun and friendly courses you'll find. Designed to be player-friendly, the par 71 layout is easily managed by the novice, yet challenging enough for the better player.

Superb course conditions, competitive pricing, convenient location and outstanding service also make Laytonsville an excellent choice for tournaments and outings. The course also offers an outstanding practice facility, including a driving range, practice putting and chipping greens, and a bunker to work on your sand play.
